

River's Edge at St. Julien's Park

Recreation impact in 2025

London, ON, Canada – Established 2001

What is disc golf?

Disc golf is an affordable outdoor game where players throw a flying disc toward a target, aiming to complete each hole in as few throws as possible. It's similar to traditional golf, but played in parks and natural spaces.

Playing a round of disc golf at River's Edge at St. Julien's Park means enjoying:

27
holes

2.2 mi
of walking

118 min
of recreation

5,098
steps

Free
recreation

River's Edge at St. Julien's Park keeps people moving, connects them with the outdoors, and most importantly, brings them the joy of the game of disc golf.

In 2025, the course has provided healthy recreation for 946 players! In total for your community, that means:

 Rounds played	7,363
 Distance walked	14,403 mi
 Recreation hours	13,290 hrs
 Steps taken	32,450,922

Community impact

River's Edge at St. Julien's Park serves your community as a hub for recreation in many different ways. People are using the course to try disc golf, to get together as a community and play in organized leagues, and visiting the course when they visit your area.

New players

455
played the course for the first time

75
tried disc golf for the first time here

Community leagues

65
total events

95
total players

1,689
hours of organized recreation

Tourism

Player travel distances:

Over 50 km/30 mi  356

Over 250 km/150 mi  81

Over 500 km/300 mi  56

Accessibility rating at River's Edge at St. Julien's Park

 Wheelchair accessible  Limited mobility/cane accessible

Disc golf is for everyone

Easy to learn and accessible across a wide range of age groups and abilities, disc golf is a lifetime activity. Its social nature connects friends, families, and community members for healthy, outdoor recreation.

Global impact

How River's Edge at St. Julien's Park is stacking up for play counts:

#5 most played in Ontario

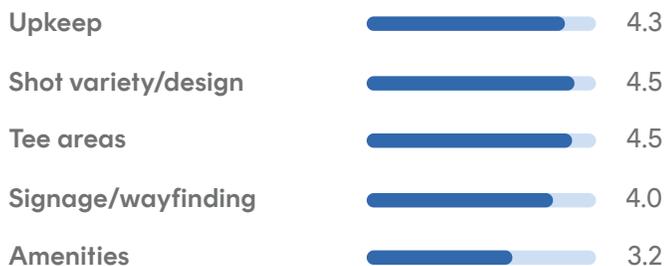

#22 most played in CA

#522 most played in the world

★ Course rating 4.4 (1378 ratings)

River's Edge at St. Julien's Park lifetime stats

Total rounds	50,387
Unique players	2,856
Recreation hours	91,574

Disc golf is bigger than you think

There are more than 17,000 public disc golf courses across 90+ countries.

Disc golf growth

500M people

live within 10km of a course

9 hole courses

are the most popular option for new installations

3.1 courses

disc golf courses are installed per day

21M rounds

of disc golf were played in 2025 worldwide

Where do these insights come from?

These statistics are collected from players that choose to record their disc golf rounds with UDisc. Total disc golf activity in your area is likely much higher.

What is UDisc?

UDisc is the #1 disc golf app on both iOS and Android. Players can find courses, navigate the fairways, keep score, record their rounds, find events, and much more.

UDisc Growth report

